

① STEP 1

Cut out all the Laundry Monster pieces: 2 handle pieces, 2 body pieces, 2 whole arm pieces, 2 long arm pieces, 2 hand pieces.

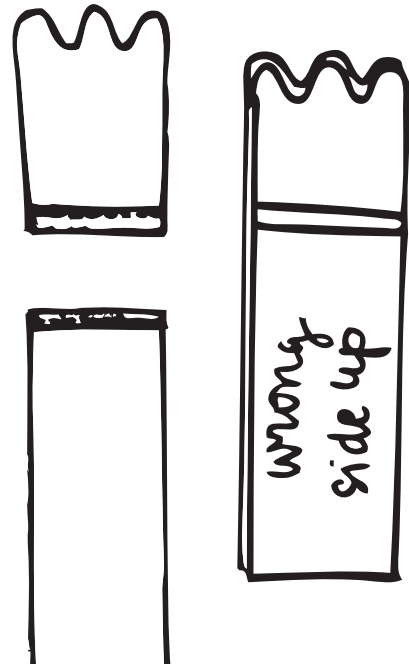

② STEP 2

To make the bag handle, fold the 5" x 22" piece of fabric in half with right sides together. Sew the entire length of the long edge, turn right side out, and press the seam open. Edge stitch each long side of the handle.

③ STEP 3

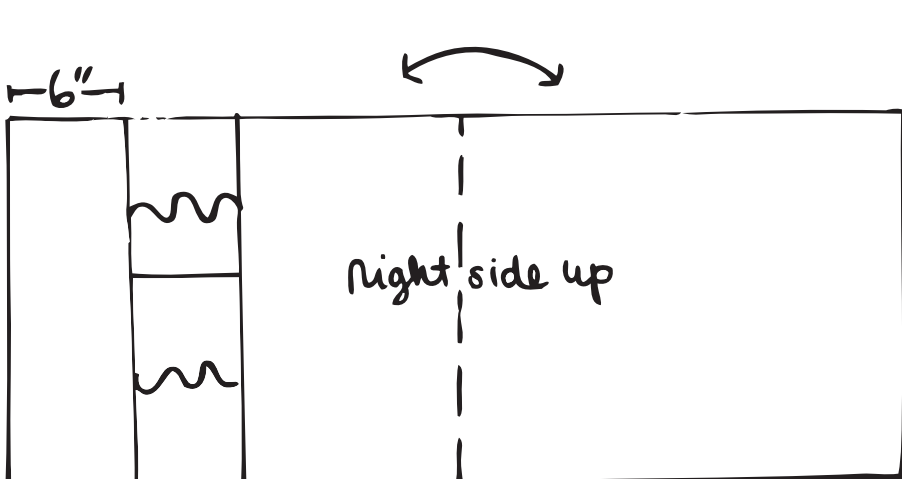

To make the bag handle, fold the 5" x 22" piece of fabric in half with right sides together. Sew the entire length of the long edge, turn right side out, and press the seam open. Edge stitch each long side of the handle.

Lay the whole arm fabric right side up, line up and lay the hand piece on top with its right side down. Then, line up and lay the long arm piece with its right side down. Pin in place. Stitch around. Turn inside out and press.

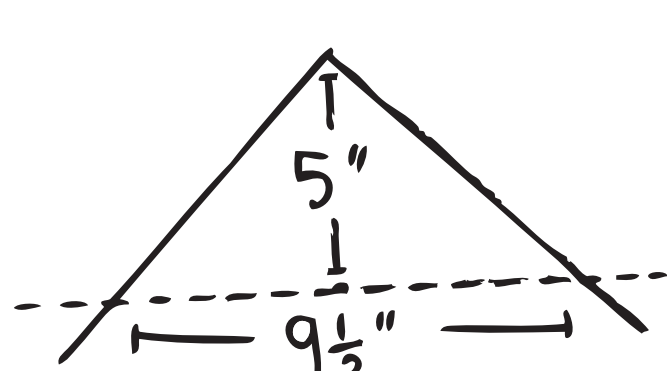

④ STEP 4

To make the outer body, place the outer body fabric right side up, place the arms, with glove side facing up, 6" down from the top and parallel with the top raw edge of the body. Fold over the rest of the body fabric with the top of the body edge lining up with one another. Pin the sides in place with the arm sandwiched between. Sew along the length of both sides.

⑤ STEP 5

To make the lining body, fold the fabric in half width-wise with the right sides together. Pin in place and sew along the length of both sides.

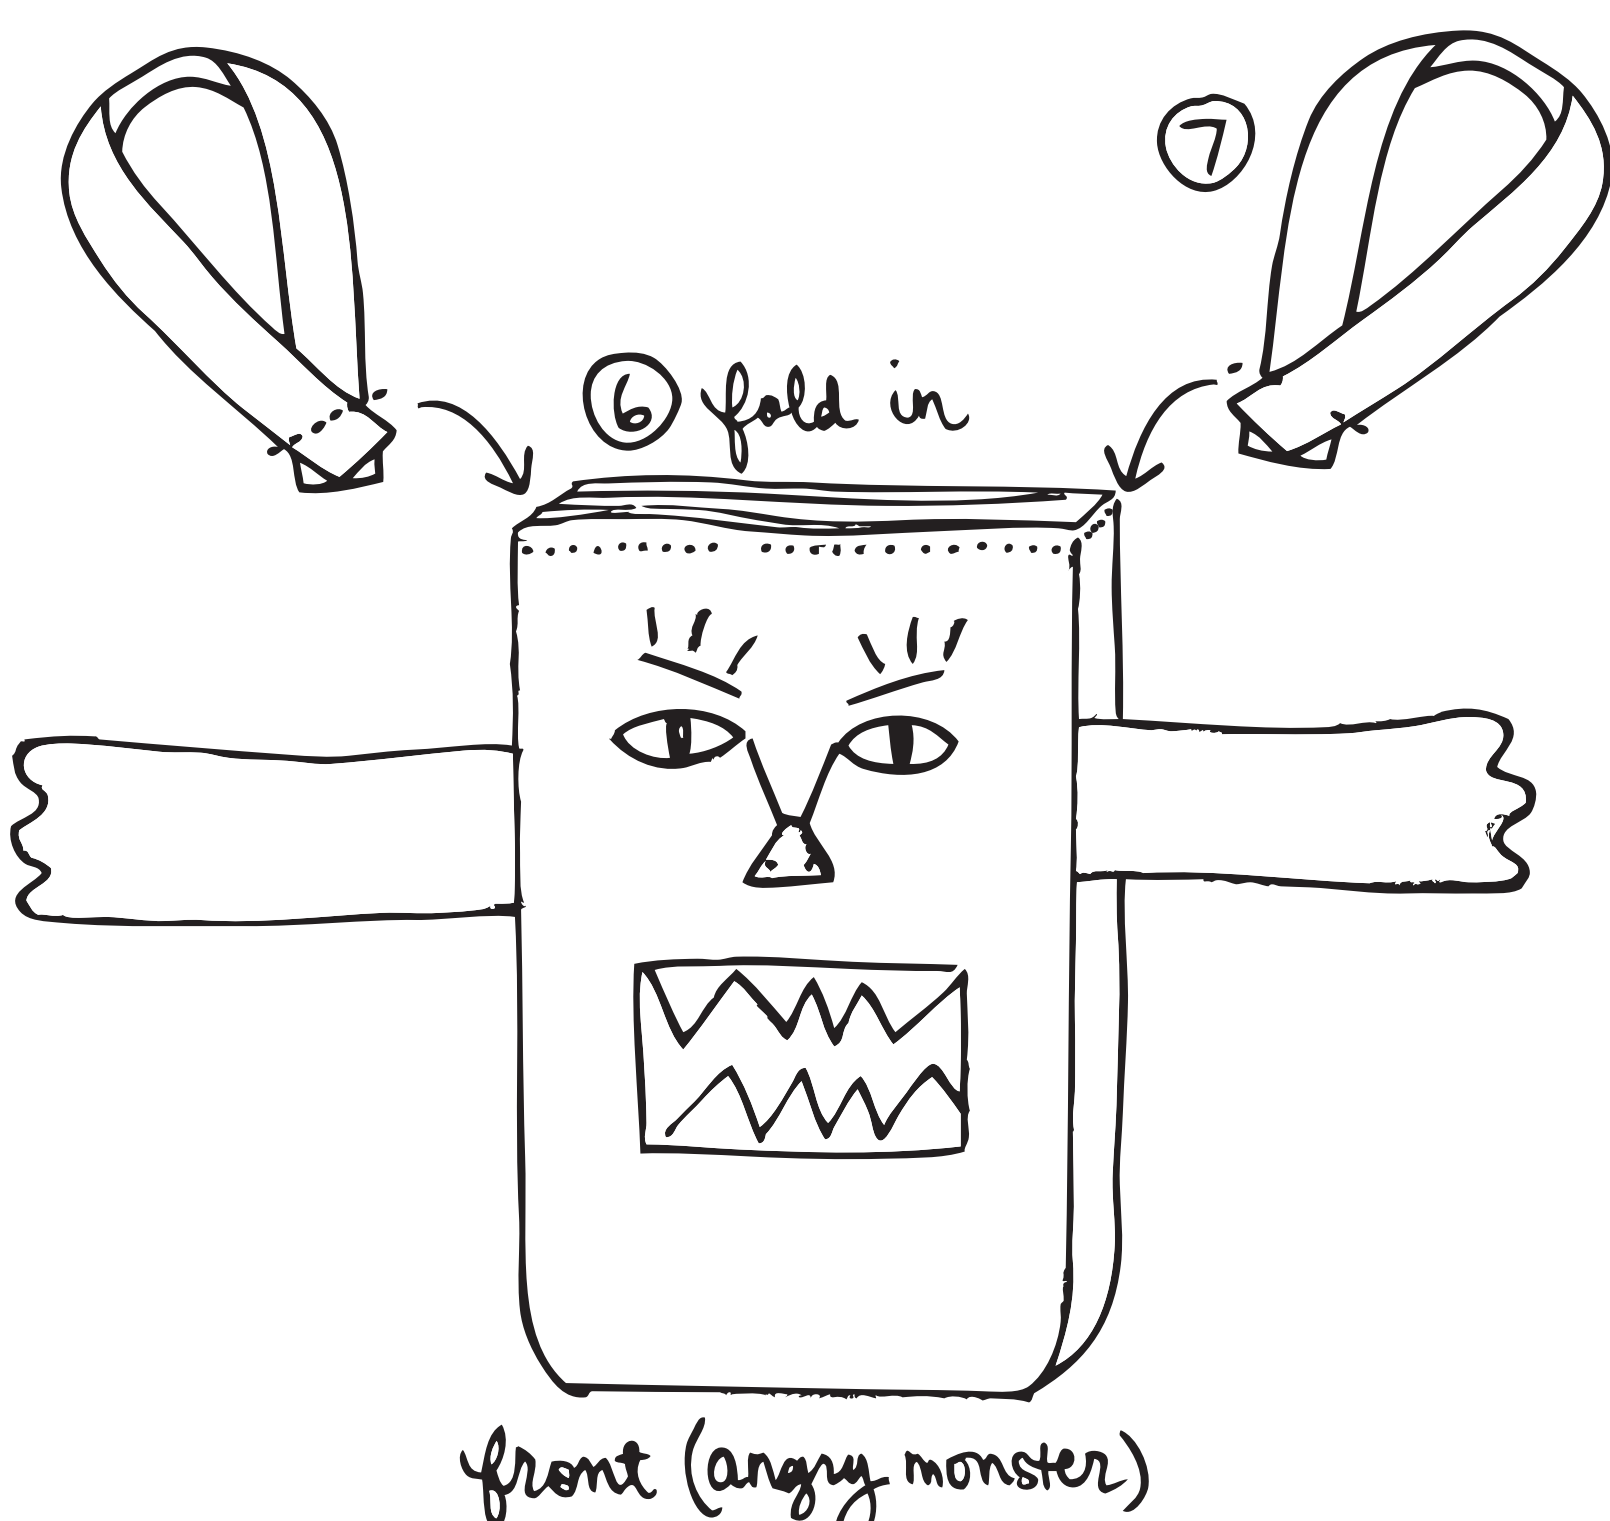

⑥ STEP 6

To make the outer body, place the outer body fabric right side up, place the arms, with glove side facing up, 6" down from the top and parallel with the top raw edge of the body. Fold over the rest of the body fabric with the top of the body edge lining up with one another. Pin the sides in place with the arm sandwiched between. Sew along the length of both sides.

⑦ STEP 7

With one of the handle pieces, crisscross the handle ends together (the short side). Insert it 1" in where the side seams are, and pin in place. Repeat for the second handle. Topstitch around the top of the bag.

⑧ STEP 8

Paint an angry laundry monster face on one side (the side opposite of the glove opening), and paint a happy laundry monster face on the other side.
